

TJ Miller

Personal Bio

T.J. Miller has been doing stand-up in Chicago for the last 2 years; and has accomplished a fair amount in that time. He has performed at many of the Chicago comedy clubs, including Zanies, Riddles and The Barrel of Laughs, as well being a regular at all of the weekly rooms including The Lincoln Lodge, The Elevated and Chicago Underground Comedy at Gunther Murphy's.

He was the most requested act at Loyola University's 2003 Laugh for a Cause Alzheimer's Benefit and returned to perform again in 2004. That benefit was held at Roosevelt University and he was featured there as well. He has done corporate work for Caribou Coffee (a CD to be released in the spring) and Old Style Light (a popular and mediocre tasting beer in Chicago) as well as paid one nighters all over Illinois. He won the regional Sierra Mist Search for the Next Great Comic in 2005.

TJ has performed at The Laugh Lounge, The Comic Strip and The New York Comedy Club in New York City and Marone's comedy club in Indiana. He is a current member of the Second City Touring Company. His style is ridiculous.

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

For T.J. Miller

1-19-05

To Whom It May Concern:

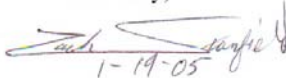

I am writing this letter regarding one of our recent projects that comedian T.J. Miller worked on. T.J. performed in a multi-faceted position of Comedian/Brand Awareness Manager for our Old Style Light "Are You Chicago?" promotional program. He performed his custom routine in numerous bars within the Chicagoland area. He took material given to him regarding Old Style Light and incorporated his own comedic styling. He tailored a routine specifically to our promotion and was very adaptable to the varying conditions and audiences he faced. Most importantly, he made the material funny while maintaining the core objectives of our promotion.

T.J. was a pleasure to work with. He was professional, even while being funny. He maintained a positive attitude throughout the entire promotion. I especially appreciated hearing him say, "I'll make it happen," even under unusual or trying circumstances. His type of "can do" attitude is essential in the industry of promotional marketing. He did a great job of managing our promotional models, vehicle, equipment, and premium items. He was also responsible for maintaining event recaps and expense reports. T.J. always kept the audiences laughing while promoting Old Style Light.

T.J. was a major factor in the success of our promotion. It was such a hit that Old Style Light decided to extend it for an additional two months. He is fully capable of tailoring a custom performance, developing original comedy material, or simply performing as a sidesplitting comedian.

Overall, T.J. Miller is energetic, professional, creative and extremely witty. He was a pleasure to work with. I could always call him for a good chuckle. He kept our office in stitches when I put him on speakerphone. I hope we can work with him again on future programs. I would certainly recommend him to anyone who is looking for a magnificent comedian.

Sincerely,
